Remarks: Suspect 1 was last seen wearing a black mask and dressed in all black. He was seen carrying a black semiautomatic handgun with a square barrel, similar to a Glock-style handgun. Suspect 2 was last seen wearing a black mask, white t-shirt and dark-colored pants. He was described as shorter than the other two suspects and slighter build. He was carrying a 1911-style handgun. Suspect 3 was last seen wearing all black clothing and was described as having a heavier build and carrying a dark-colored semiautomatic handgun.

Weapon Used: 1 semiautomatic handgun with square barrel, similar to a Glock-style handgun, one 1911-style handgun, and 1 dark-colored semiautomatic handgun.

CAUTION

On Friday, February 19, 2016, at approximately 11:07 a.m., the Marine Credit Union located at 7600 West Bluemound Road in Wauwatosa, Wisconsin, was robbed. Three suspects entered the credit union and announced the robbery. One suspect jumped over the teller counter, leaving the other suspects in the lobby. After a period of time, one of the two remaining suspects walked behind the teller counter. After the suspects were provided money from two teller drawers, all three suspects then exited the bank and left in a vehicle determined to be stolen prior to the credit union robbery.

SHOULD BE CONSIDERED ARMED AND DANGEROUS
